OBJECTIVES

This continuing nursing educational (CNE) activity is designed for nurses and other health care professionals who are interested in mentoring as a teaching-learning strategy in nursing. For those wishing to obtain CNE contact hours, an evaluation follows. After studying the information presented in this article, the nurse will be able to:

1. Explain faculty and student mentoring.
2. Describe student peer-to-peer mentoring.
3. Define graduate student mentors.
4. Discuss the results of a study which examined the effectiveness of using a nurse educator graduate student to mentor an undergraduate nursing student.

This independent study activity is co-provided by AMSN and Anthony J. Jannetti, Inc. (AJJ).

AJJ is accredited as a provider of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation (ANCC-COA).

Anthony J. Jannetti, Inc. is a provider approved by the California Board of Registered Nursing, Provider Number, CEP 5387.
